GRADUATION AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

Only One Pupil. The Course.

The graduation exercises at St. Joseph's convent took place yesterday afternoon. Miss Harriet M. Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, 17 Forest Park Boulevard, was the only graduate. Her essay was on the subject "Gentle Yet Strong." She received a gold graduation medal and a crown of lilies, the class flower, for exemplary conduct and observance of rules during her school life. Miss Caldwell also received prizes for physics and composition and rhetoric.

Speeches were made by Dean E. M. McGinnity at the opening of the exercises and Rev. Father Reilly, of Lake Geneva, at the close. Suspended above the stage was the motto on a large scroll, "Sursum et Prorsum"—"Upward and Onward."

Committee Raised Half the Required Sum in a Few Hours.

It is quite evident from the success met with yesterday by a committee of the Imperial band, that the merchants of the city are in favor of having open air band concerts. The amount of money needed is $100. A few hours' work yesterday netted them $50, and it is no thought that the balance can be easily raised.

HOT WEATHER DYSPEPSIA.

Thousands Suffer From It at This Season of the Year.

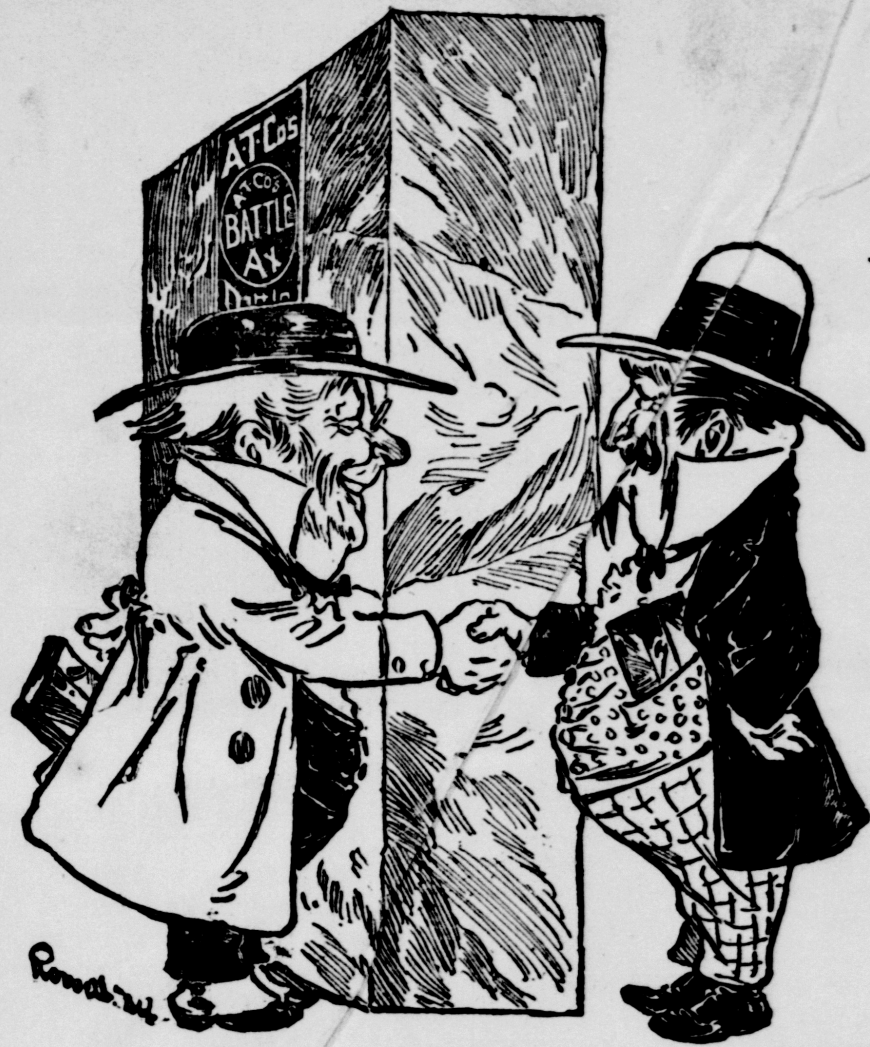

Hot weather dyspepsia may be recognized by the following symptoms: Depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, loss of flesh and appetite, no desire for food, bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning, wind in stomach and bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness, weariness, costiveness, headache, palpitation, heartburn. It is a mistake to treat such troubles with "tonics," "blood purifiers," "cathartics," "pills," because the whole trouble is in the stomach. It is indigestion or dyspepsia and nothing else.

All these symptoms rapidly disappear when the stomach is relieved, strengthened, and cleansed by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They should be taken after meals and a few carried in the pocket to be used whenever any pain or distress is felt in the stomach. They are prepared only for stomach troubles.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are endorsed by such physicians as Dr. Harlandson, Dr. Jenkinson, and Dr. Mayer, because they contain the natural digestive acids and fruit essence, which when taken into the stomach cause the prompt digestion of the food before it has time to ferment and sour, which is the cause of the mischief.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are pleasant to take and unequalled for invalids, children and every person afflicted with imperfect digestion. It is safe to say they will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Nearly all the druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages and cents. A book on stomach troubles and thousands of testimonials sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

W. W. CLARKE,
Special Committee.

Republican State Convention.
TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF WISCONSIN:—By direction of the state central committee, a convention of the republican electors of the state of Wisconsin will be held in the city of Milwaukee, on Wednesday, the 5th day of August, 1896, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating a republican state ticket to be voted for at the general election in November next, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. Rock county is entitled to the following delegates:
First Assembly District..... 6
Second Assembly District..... 8
Third Assembly District..... 9
EDWIN D. COE, Chairman.
JOHN M. EWING, Secretary.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.
1582—James Crichton, the famous scholar and gentleman (The Admirable), was assassinated at Mantua, Italy, aged 22.
1725—The Comte de Rochambeau (Rochambeau), French general in America, born; died 1807. Rochambeau was the son of a governor of Vendome. Entering the army at 17, he won promotion by his gallantry and soldierly abilities. For leading his regiment in an assault at Minorca he was knighted and commissioned brigadier general. In 1780 Rochambeau reached America with 6,000 French allies for the Revolutionary army. The column landed at Rhode Island and by the skill of its leader crossed the country to New Jersey, defeating the British plans by the maneuver. At Yorktown the valiant Frenchman led a decisive assault.
1863—Battle of Gettysburg begun.
1867—Thomas Francis Meagher, Irish patriot and American soldier, while governor of Montana, fell from a steamer on the Mississippi and was drowned; born 1823.
1892—The great lockout of 3,800 men at Homestead, Pa., began.

FEWER "DOCUMENTS" THIS YEAR.
Newspapers and not pamphlets will be relied upon as campaign documents this year. The republican managers have decided to waste less money in flooding the country with dreary and useless leaflets and the decision is wise. Campaign documents are not read by one in a hundred of those to whom they are sent, and when they are read they do not serve any effective purpose. The people do not seek such means of political instruction and inspiration. It is well enough to circulate a few speeches of the party leaders, but it is only a waste of time and money to flood the land with anonymous pamphlets and circulars. There are better ways of bringing important facts to the attention of voters and helping them to form proper conclusions as to political duties and advantages.

The supreme influence in a political campaign is the newspaper. It goes everywhere as a regular visitor, and contains all the latest information and all of the pertinent and forcible arguments by which men's minds are influenced. The man who gets a newspaper does not toss it aside as he does the documents that are sent out by a literary bureau, but reads it with interest and remembers what it says. Next to the newspapers in point of useful service is the stump speaker who goes out among the people and talks to them in an entertaining style, answering their questions and simplifying difficult things to them. These two agencies do the most of the really beneficial work for a party. They are quick to see and improve opportunities and their methods of attracting notice and stimulating intelligent inquiry are such as can always be trusted to bring the best results. The day of pamphlets and circulars has gone by. There was a time when they were suited to the conditions, but that was before newspapers became so plentiful and so cheap, and the facilities for stump speaking so excellent in every respect. The literary bureau can well be spared, therefore, as a part of the electioneering machinery, and the republican managers will not miss it so far as the practical interests of the campaign are concerned.

Illinois folks hate to admit it, but their state will be one of the chief battle grounds this fall. Bossism has disgusted many republicans, and has given Altgeld with his anarchy and his proneness to play to the gallery, a chance to make a fight.

Governor Upham's withdrawal in the interests of harmony should give the cue to other republicans to sink personal feeling. Let the ticket this fall be one to arouse enthusiasm throughout the state.

Can it be that two candidates for governor are all we get? A red-hot old-fashioned convention hardly can be made from so scant an allowance.

The prospect that Mr. Cleveland will either go fishing or vote for Bryan on election day grows

as friends rise up and take down Milwaukee the summer

Confused.
The boy looked a good deal puzzled, and was silent for such a long time as to attract his mother's attention.
"What are you thinking about?" she inquired.
"I want to ask a question, only I can't get it so that it won't sound mixed up."
"What is it?"
"Why, when an elephant shakes his trunk is he wagging his tail?"—Washington Star.

Natural Results.
The laundryman with a few concluding gestures hung the shirt up on the line.
"Well, how do you feel?" sighed the buttonholes to the bosom.
"I feel completely done up," answered the bosom, with a heave; "ho, is it with you?"
The buttonholes groaned.
"Oh, we're all torn out," they replied, in a faint voice.—N. Y. Recorder.

Over the Handle Bar.
She smiled at me as she swiftly passed. Over the handle bar; That sunny smile was the maiden's last, Over the handle bar; She carried hard on a cobblestone. She took a header she couldn't postpone— Her twinkling heels in the moonlight shone Over the handle bar. —Cleveland Post.

WANTED HIS COMMISSION.

Patient—What, doctor! One dollar a visit!
Physician—Why, that's not much. It's less than most of my patients pay.
Patient—That may be, doctor, but remember it was I who brought the fever into the neighborhood.—N. Y. World.

An Error.
"Spring chicken," said the diner sad, "I thought would be a toothsome thing. Until, alas, I found they had O'erlooked the fowl and served the spring." —Washington Star.

In Arkansas.
Slick-Head Sal—Quick! quick! hurry up, young feller! I want a 'surance policy on my husband for a $100,000.
Bland Insurance Agent—But, my good woman, why all this hurry? Won't to-morrow—
Slick-Head Sal—Ter-morrer be blowed! he's jist stole a hoss.—Truth.

A Gossip's Inference.
"I had always understood that, the late Mr. Wellington was a man of considerable property."
"Wasn't he?"
"He couldn't have been. I haven't heard of any steps to contest his will." —Washington Star.

Unselfishness.
Mrs. Styles—Does your husband keep abreast of the times?
Mrs. Boardman—Well, I don't know so much about that, but every time he does the carving, I do know, he keeps a breast of the chicken.—Yonkers Statesman.

Method in His Madness.
Yeast—I don't see the use of kissing. There's that man Gushington forever kissing his wife.
Crimsonbeak—It keeps her from talking, don't you see?—Yonkers Statesman.

Dear Creature.
Elder Lady—At the present day a woman is considered most interesting when she has reached 40.
Young Ditto—Really, dear? I did not think you were quite so old as that.—Fun.

Essentially a Modern Question.
The old man shaded his eyes and looked after the fleeing bicyclist disappearing up the road.
"I wonder," he ruminated, "whether that's my boy or my girl."—Chicago Post.

How to Shop.
Fair Shopper (in great store)—There, this novel will do. Don't wrap it up.
Clerk—Don't wrap it up?
"No, indeed. I'll sit down here and read it to kill time while waiting for my change."—N. Y. Weekly.

A Romantic Girl.
"Lucille is very sentimental, isn't she?"
"Oh, very; she learned to ride a wheel just because she wanted some scars to carry to her grave."—Chicago Record.

Learned All About It.
"So you went out driving with your new beau, Susie, and I expect he read your heart like a book?"
"Yes, mother; he read between the lines."—Detroit Free Press.

All He Wanted.
She—You may put your arm around me, but only once.
He—Oh, that will do very well. I'm no boa constrictor.—Town Topics.

Does Just as Well.
"Brimmer never goes away for a rest in warm weather."
"No, but he always sends his family."—Chicago Record.

Never Touched Pork.
Magistrate—Prosecutor accuses you of having bitten his hand.
Prisoner—That is impossible, sir; I am a vegetarian.—Tit-Bits.

Not a Water Color.
Bryce—Old Soak's nose is really a work of art.
Gryce—Well, you can be sure it isn't a water color.—Kansas City World.

Might Be Improved.
It had just come from the milliner's. "It's magnificent!" exclaimed her dearest friend. "I haven't seen a more beautiful theater hat this year."
But it did not satisfy her. Her dearest friend might rave over it, but she knew that there was something wrong with it.
"It is high enough," she said, "but it lacks breadth. I do not believe it would cut off more than one person's view of the stage."
Then she ordered the necessary alterations to make it a perfect theater hat. —Chicago Post.

Understood His Business.
Author—I have sent my essay on "Marriage a Failure" to the Hightone Magazine.
Friend—Great Scott, man! The editor of the Hightone Magazine will never accept that. He was married not over a week ago!
Author—No matter. My article is there, but it will be a year or two before it is read.—N. Y. Weekly.

How He Knew.
"And so the baron has proposed for Ethelinda's hand," said Mrs. Cumrox. "What do you think of it?"
"I don't know. You hear so many people say these foreign noblemen haven't any idea of the value of money."
"I'm sure the count has."
"Why?"
"Because he proposed for Ethelinda's hand."—Washington Star.

Westerner—A New Yorker, you are of course fond of New York. Aren't you?
New Yorker—Certainly. If you can afford to live in the country during the summer, and to go abroad or down south in the winter, New York is a pleasant place to live in. —Harper's Bazar.

To Boom Penneyer for President.
Portland, Ore., July 1.—"Penneyer for president" will be the slogan of the Oregon democratic delegation to the Chicago convention. It can not be established that Penneyer has expressed any desire to have it so, but there is little doubt that his name and fame will be exploited long and loudly among the delegates. The state democracy is in favor of the free coinage of silver.

Yellow Fever Increasing.
Washington, July 1.—Official advice to Surgeon-General Wyman of the Marine hospital service from Santiago de Cuba, June 13, state that the United States sanitary inspector has found 1,000 cases of smallpox in that city. Yellow fever is on the increase in the island, these reports show.

Mrs. Stowe Is Dying.
Hartford, Conn., July 1.—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and other works, and a sister of Henry Ward Beecher, is now lying upon her death bed. Friends in attendance expect the end at almost any moment.

Boies Not a Delegate.
Waterloo, Iowa, July 1.—Governor Boies will not attend the Chicago convention as a delegate-at-large. He decided last night to yield his position as head of the Iowa delegation to Judge Van Wagenen of Sioux City.

Chandler Against Gold Alone.
Concord, N. H., July 1.—In a signed editorial by Senator W. E. Chandler the Monitor states that it advocates the election of McKinley and Hobart as the able representatives of the great republican party whose restoration to national power is required by the best interests of the people. The editorial also states that the Monitor also advocates opposition to the free and unlimited coinage of silver bullion under existing conditions by the United States alone, and, moreover, opposes the single gold standard of money. Devotion to the double standard, the bimetallicism of the recent centuries, is expressed.

Republicans of Iowa to Meet.
Des Moines, Iowa, July 1.—The subcommittee on the republican state central committee met here Tuesday to complete arrangements for the state convention which meets July 15. The tabernacle was secured. An invitation to attend was sent to Major McKinley.

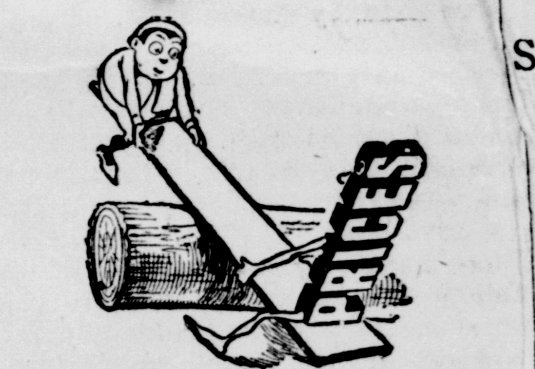

Loose clothes and downy cushioning bring only a negative sort of comfort to the woman who is suffering with some disease or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Some clothes and some positions make the pain and discomfort seem less. Perhaps the nerves are most affected and this in turn disturbs the digestion. Nothing will ever completely relieve but a radical cure. The start of so-called "female complaints" may be a very slight thing indeed. It may be that in the beginning some small hygienic measures would stop the trouble. Certainly at this time, a little bit of the right medicine would stop it. When the trouble becomes worse, it is harder to cure, but still it can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will positively cure any trouble of this character. It affords lasting relief to a woman whose natural modesty has kept her from consulting physicians.

NURSE TO GET $312 FOR THE WORK DONE

BARNES-BURTON CASE IS DECIDED

Matter Was Bitterly Contested and the Legal Battle Was a Sharp One—Lady Witnesses Said to Have Had a Jangle—Decision Was For Plaintiff.

The case of Alice M. Barnes against the estate of Mr. Burton of Evansville, was concluded in the county court, this afternoon, and Judge Sale rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff, in the sum of $312.

Mrs. Barnes sought to recover $739 from the heirs, for services alleged to have been rendered in taking care of Mr. Burton while he was confined to the house by illness. The heirs refused to pay the bill, claiming that it was too large, and the suit followed. The case was bitterly fought on both sides, and was a legal battle royal. R. M. Richmond of Evansville, and E. D. McGowan of this city, being the opposing counsel.

The feeling among the witnesses was strong, and it was said that two ladies shook their fists at each other and threatened to pull hair, in the hallway during a recess.

McKenna is in Jury's Hands. James McKenna's fate rests with a municipal court jury, and at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon, they had not agreed upon a verdict.

McKenna has been on trial before Judge Phelps since yesterday morning. Burglary is the charge made against him. It was alleged that he broke into the office of the Randall Paper Company of Beloit, and stole a typewriter valued at $100, afterward selling the machine for $1. District Attorney Jackson prosecuted the case, and Henry S. Sloan appeared for the defense. The case was hotly contested, and there was "plenty of excitement" in the court room all day. The witnesses were mostly Beloit men and several told their story.

McKenna had the reputation of being a bad citizen and had only been out of Waupun a short time when the present offense was committed. Charles Catlin, who is charged with forgery, was not captured at Dubuque by Sheriff Michelson of Dane county and the sheriff returned home empty handed. Telegrams sent to that city were late in reaching the Dubuque police.

Two Cyclers Ran Together. Collision in The Dark at Spring Brook, Last Night.

What came near being a serious bicycle accident took place at Spring Brook last evening. The night being dark, it was impossible for a rider to see far ahead, and in turning it was a team, Joseph Weiss collided with a fellow cyclist, throwing him headlong to the ground, and cutting to bad wounds in his face, besides inflicting painful bruises. He was taken to the office of Dr. W. H. Palmer and required a number of stitches to close his wounds.

Forty-five different delegations have been heard from the county, and the present indications point to a great crowd.

The Salvation Army will hold forth, this evening, in the Congregational church. Major Bringle, Chief Divisional secretary to Brigadier General Brewer of the Northwestern division, of Chicago will be the speaker and a stirring meeting will be held.

Not Hard as Says. According to the usual story, times are very hard; but there are some symptoms of life in trade still. One would have thought so, at least, if they dropped into Archie Reid & Company's store at any time today. The drawing card was a 69 cent sale of every shirt waist in the store, and the way ladies looked to the counters for bargains, kind of knocks out the scarcity of money story. This sale of waists continues until Saturday evening.

Night Lamps. We have just received some night lamps, at 25 and 40 cents, with gold or silver trimmings. They are the latest kind of lamps for the sick room, or where a small light is needed through the night. Lowell Hardware Company.

A CELEBRATION BY REPUBLICANS

ARRANGMENTS FOR THE RATIFICATION ARE COMPLETE.

Chair Vankirk Has Had the Ratification in Charge, and No Detail Has Been Neglected—Good Speeches Will Be Heard—To Form Two Companies.

This is a great night for Janesville republicans.

Will ratify the nominations, and platform, and cheer for William McKinley and Garrett A. Hobart.

Be that, they will hurrah for McKinley; for protection to American industries and institutions; for peace; for patriotism and prosperity.

Never has the country been so full of wise republican measures. We have the people expressed their preference in that direction so enthusiastically. They want, yes they demand, these things and they are going to have them.

There is no more rock-rooted "McKinley town" in the United States than Janesville. The sentiment is unanimous, and the people are a unit. Tonight the first gun in the campaign will be fired. There will be a ratification meeting as a ratification meeting, and the crowd will be large.

County Chairman W. T. Vankirk has had the arrangements in charge, and that means much. No detail has been neglected, and the chairman has been the busiest man in town. Speeches will be made by prominent speakers, both from abroad and from Janesville, and the band will play. The marching and cycling clubs will start from the rink, march up Milwaukee street, and back to the court house park, where the speaking, etc., will be heard. Chairman Vankirk also announces that campaign marching and cycling clubs will also be formed.

In case of rain, the meeting will adjourn to Concordia Hall.

TOOK VOWS AT CUPID'S ALTAR. Van Galder-McArthur.

Albert C. Van Galder and Miss Helen E. McArthur were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur, in the town of Bradford, in the presence of over one hundred relatives and friends, last evening. At ten minutes past 8 o'clock, Miss Jennie McArthur, sister of the bride, played a wedding march, and the bride and groom, awaiting under an arch of trailing arbutus and floral decorations, said the words that did consummate their happiness. Among the many guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and family, Minn.; Miss Christina Robertson, Ravenswood, Ill.; Misses Agnes Daily Blair, Chicago; Miss Belle Easson, LaCrosse; Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Crandall, Cambridge, Ill.; Mrs. Lou Van Galder, Hartly, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Galder, Albany, Wis., and the Hon. Henry Tarrant and wife of LaPrairie, and a large number from Clinton, LaPrairie, Shopiere and Janesville. The bride and groom were the recipients of a very large number of useful and ornamental gifts. An elegant and beautiful supper was served and the guests spent a delightful evening in social intercourse, and parted with the best wishes for the happiness of the bride and groom. The young couple will make their home in LaPrairie. Rev. R. K. Manaton, pastor of the First M. E. church, this city, officiated.

Koerner-Schaller. Two popular young people were united in marriage when John Conrad Koerner and Miss Hattie Dorothy Schaller stood at the wedding altar yesterday afternoon. Rev. C. J. Koerner, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and father of the groom, performed the ceremony at the home of the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schaller, 204 Linn street. The bride was attended by Miss Lizzie Klenke of Milwaukee, and George Koerner, brother of the groom, was best man. The service was spoken while the bride and groom stood under an evergreen arch, and a wedding feast was served after the ceremony. A reception was given them last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schaller. The occasion was also the anniversary of their wedding, which made the event all the more enjoyable. Mr. Koerner is now the proprietor of a drug store at Wauwatosa, where the newly wedded couple will make their future home. May their life be long, and their happiness complete, is the wish of their many Janesville friends.

Fancy Buttons Still Fashionable—Variety of Trimmings—Flaring Collars.

Buttons still prevail and are employed on all varieties of gowns and wraps. There are small buttons of bright or dull gold, others covered with velvet or with the material of the dress, large ones of paste, steel, jewels and painted china for Louis Quinze coats and waistcoats. Passementerie has gone somewhat out of favor except when it is the foundation of jeweled trimmings, and for these embroidered lace is generally preferred, either in edging or insertion. Oriental decorations in spangles of every tint of the rainbow, gold and colored metal cords and imitation gems make the modern dress costume very rich and elaborate looking. Mousseline de soie in white and cream is sometimes worked with simple silks in delicate colors, but the majority of trimmings are dazzling with metal and jewel effects. Designs in cut jet are embroidered on bodices and capes. Raised flowers are worked in silk of the natural tints on gowns, and every device is employed to obtain brilliancy and elaboration.

Neck trimmings are many and voluminous. Collars to capes and jackets are made more flaring than formerly, which gives space for more fuss and feathers at the throat. Rufflike ruckings are seen everywhere. The plain neckband is finished at the top with tabs of silk velvet or the dress material bordered with lace or other narrow trimming, or fans or a ruffle of lace take the place of the tabs. Ruches of the large and fluffy variety are the preferred neck adornment, however. Black accordion plaited lisse, lace and chiffon, hemmed with narrow cream guipure, is one of the favorite materials for these ruches.

The illustration shows a wedding gown of the Louis Seize style in white satin. The skirt has a long, round train, and the sole decoration consists of a trail of orange blossoms that outlines the right side of the bodice. The bodice has a very short bustle directly at the back and is pointed in front. The Marie Antoinette fichu of mousseline de soie is edged with a double flounce of plaited mousseline and opens over a full mousseline plastron, which is gathered into a high satin collar bordered with orange blossoms. The gigot sleeves are finished by a lace frill and a tiny garland of blossoms at the wrists. A cluster of orange flowers is worn at the breast and another at the right side of the waist.

Sleeves of Every Variety, Trimmed or Otherwise—Capes For Dress Occasions.

Black relieved with white or with dashes of color artistically placed is to be very fashionable. Black is always nice looking. It wears well as a rule and is the most generally serviceable of anything. A black gown well made and of good material is wonderfully useful and can be worn almost everywhere with different accessories.

Sleeves are now enjoying a season of the wildest license, owing to the sudden change of fashion which has been so abrupt that nobody as yet is much influenced by it. While the newest sleeves are tight to the arm and either smooth or wrinkled in the mousquetaire style, large ones have by no means disappeared, and some of the latest French gown models show balloon and gigot sleeves. A great deal of sleeve trimming is permissible and is seen on bodices of thin summer goods.

Mohairs and etamines are in great vogue. They are used alone or in combination with glaze flowered taffeta. Lace, embroidery and buttons form the decoration.

Capes and jackets are both worn, but for all dress purposes capes are given a marked preference. They are round, cut in dalmatic form or arranged like a Marie Antoinette fichu and are usually made of taffeta or other light material, the trimming being principally tulle and mousseline de soie. For morning and serviceable wear the cape is of thin cloth, plainly made.

Linon—the ecru grasscloth seen in such abundance now—is the most prominent feature of the season. It is to be had in all grades, the newer and more expensive varieties being embroidered with large flowers or having velvet dots of various colors. There are also some very attractive checks or plaids formed by narrow, crossing threads of bright colored or white silk.

A sketch is given of a simple but striking summer costume. The skirt is of beige serge and is entirely plain. The blouse bodice, of glaze green taffeta, is ornamented with large cabochons of jet, which are sewed all over the body of the corsage. The taffeta sleeves are plain and have a frill of mousseline de soie at the wrist. The straight silk collar is surmounted by a double frill of mousseline, and the cravat of the same material is edged with lace. The belt of green satin is adorned with two buttons and pendants.

HOW TO IRRIGATE IN ILLINOIS

Wet Water Must Be Used and the Dry Seasons Can Be Defied.

Dr. Clarke Gape's address before the Illinois Horticultural Society contained many necessary points for new beginners in irrigation in Illinois and of the central western states generally, says the Irrigation Age. Extracts are made here and there:

If you had to sell one-fourth or one-third of your land to establish a good irrigation plant you would be the richer in the outcome.

A soil to which is given all the water it can use will produce four times an average product.

With ordinary water irrigation land previously yielding ten bushels of wheat an acre under irrigation yields sixty bushels an acre, and lands which were worth from $2 to $10 an acre increase in value to $300 an acre.

It makes but little difference what kind of water is used, just so it is wet. It does not need to be clean water.

Irrigation in the humid regions will undoubtedly be individual rather than co-operative in character. What then are the means by which an individual, or at most two or three individuals, acting together, may secure to themselves an irrigant plant? In a very few cases this may be done by building a dam across a stream and diverting the waters into a channel, which will be carried around on the higher ground and utilized by those owning the land farther down the stream, as is done in Colorado. But in the main, I take it, irrigation in the humid regions will be used by horticulturists and garden or truck farmers, and in this case only tracts of from ten to forty acres will be irrigated. In these cases the water will have to be raised, probably by some form of pumping machinery.

By means of improved and comparatively inexpensive pumping machinery it is now found possible to deliver water at a very small cost.

Love Powders in Minnesota.

About the richest thing in the way of a criminal prosecution comes from Washington. C. A. Roberts, a photographer at Jackson, Mich., has been using the mails to dispose of "love powders" which were to absolutely cement the affections of any contrary miss or wayward laddie whom the buyer wished to control and make them love for evermore. Uncle Sam, however, is unsentimental and one day a postoffice inspector dropped in on Mr. Roberts and hauled him before the court commissioner for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. The evidence proved conclusively that he had been prosecuting the nefarious business all over the country. Canada and Australia were some of the countries represented in the correspondence. The circulars shown were spiced reading and explicit instructions given as to the use of the powders and potions. One powder was to be taken internally, and the person to be subjected to the bond of love was to be kissed on the middle of the forehead or on the back of the neck, and the breath blown very hard on the spot kissed. If the breath was not blown as directed the spell would not work. Numerous other concoctions were present and each was to be used in a different manner, and the user was cautioned not to use it for immoral purposes. The defense set up the claim that these powders were not a fraud and proof could be produced that they did all that was claimed for them. The accused was bound over to await the action of the United States court at Mankato.

Man Under 35.

Mrs. Lillian Bell, the authoress, asserts that conversation with a man under 35 is impossible, because the man under 35 never converses; he only talks. And your chief accomplishment of being a good listener is entirely thrown away on him, because he does not in the least care whether you listen or not. Neither is it of any use for you to show that he has surprised or shocked you. He cares not for your approval or disapproval. He is utterly indifferent to you, not because you do not please him, but because he has not seen you at all. He knows you are there in that chair; he bows to you in the street. Oh, yes! He knows your name and where you live. But you are only an entity to him, not an individual. He cares not for your likes and dislikes, your cares, or hopes, or fears. He only wants you to be pretty and well dressed. Have a mind if you will. He will not know it. Have a heart and a soul. They do not concern him. He wants you to be tailor-made. You are a girl to him. That's all.

On account of the international convention of the B. Y. P. U., the Northwestern line will sell excursion tickets to Milwaukee and return at rate of one fare for the round trip. For dates of sale and other information apply to agents of C. N. W. R'y.

Eli Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes: "I have been suffering from piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands of similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used. C. D. Stevens.
